

R. Benjamin Peeler, IV

Senior Associate

Areas of Practice

Business Litigation | Civil Litigation | Intellectual Property
Construction Law | Real Estate Litigation

Full Bio

Mr. Peeler focuses his practice on business litigation, construction litigation, and intellectual property matters. As a licensed Patent Attorney, Mr. Peeler is eligible to prosecute patent applications to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on behalf of his clients. Mr. Peeler also has experience assisting clients with trademark and copyright issues in both the transactional and litigation settings. Mr. Peeler works with clients on a variety of software and technology issues, from licensing to works-for-hire. In addition to intellectual property matters, Mr. Peeler has also assisted many clients in the litigation of real property and home construction matters.

A Georgia native, Mr. Peeler graduated from the University of Georgia with both a bachelor's degree in Microbiology and a J.D. While in law school, Mr. Peeler worked on intellectual property and general contract matters for a multinational financial technology corporation and represented Gwinnett County. Mr. Peeler also served as the Executive Editor of the Journal of Intellectual Property, and the Events Coordinator of the Intellectual Property Law Society. After graduating from Law School, Mr. Peeler served a term as a judicial clerk to the Honorable Judge Wilbanks in the Conasauga Judicial Circuit.

A resident of Canton, Mr. Peeler enjoys playing chess, cooking, and watching the Dawgs in his free time.