Full Bio

Ms. Workman represents businesses throughout their life cycles in a variety of corporate and transactional matters, including mergers and acquisitions, entity formation, and corporate governance. Ms. Workman works with companies of all sizes and industries to navigate key milestones and challenges at every stage of development.

Ms. Workman earned her J.D. degree from the University of Georgia School of Law, where she served as the Executive Online Editor for the Georgia Criminal Law Review and the Research Assistant for former Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, Andrea Dennis. While in law school, Ms. Workman also completed a civil externship with the Fulton County Office of the Child Attorney, was sworn in as a Court Appointed Special Advocate in Athens-Clarke County, and became a registered neutral in Georgia through UGA Law's Mediation Practicum.

Prior to law school, Ms. Workman graduated summa cum laude from the University of Georgia with B.A. degrees in Criminal Justice and Political Science, along with minors in Sociology and Law.

As a Canton native, Ms. Workman is thrilled to return to Cherokee County and currently lives in Ball Ground. In her free time, Ms. Workman enjoys several hobbies such as needlepointing and playing Mahjong, as well as spending time with friends, family, and her dog, Mabel.
